AQUEDUCT RACE TRACK, April 18.

Two stakes were decided at Aqueduct this afternoon, The Carnarsie, for two-length. Colonsay was this afternoon, The Carnarsie, for two-year-olds, and the Rockaway, for three-year-olds, and the Rockaway, for threeyear-olds and upwards.

Two records were broken during the afternoon. Suzanne Rosamore broken AQUEDUCT ENTRIES MONDAY. the half-mile record in the first race for two-year-olds, running the distance in 0.471-5. In the Canarsie, however, 16.—Entries for the races to be decided Augur, carrying the colors of James R. here Monday are as follows: ran the same distance in 0.47, beating W. C. Daly's crack, Amber Jack fastest two-year-old at Gravesend Augur won like a good two-year-old, standing a hard drive and winning by several lengths. Amber Jack proved himself a good colt by easily beating the others, which included Dr. Schwartz, year Wine and Song, and others widely toutd. Augur was a 12 to 1 chance. The Musketeer was a hot favorite in the Rockaway Stakes and was well cacked. He was said to be at his best, but the race did not prove this, for Luck made the running for half the distance and then Silver Dream went to winning easily at the julcy

Banking on the success of the Paget setting in the two-year-old race yesternal tae thent made fire Ruby and Tea Cress not favorites at a short price. Suzanne rocammore was the second choice. Salad Days was also well played. They got away fairly well, and Cotillon at once lumped to the front to make the running. She was followed by Suzanne Rockamore and Monamour in close order. They held this order to the last furlong, where Suzanne under a drive forged to the front and in a red-hot finish with Cotillon won by a head. Cotillon was four lengths in front of Monamour.

Bullman's First Mount.

Akela was a hot favorite and Johnny suiman had his first mount. It was lucky one, for Bullman brought Akeis home an easy winner. Pretorious, ridden by Shaw, beat the barrier and set a hot pace to the stretch, followed by Akela and Pretorious. Once in the stretch Alekia moved up to Pretorious and coming away in the last sixteenth won easily by a length and a half. Pretorious hung on to second place and beat Queen Elizabeth a head for the place.

Song and Wine was the choice of the talent, but he was away badly and had no chance to show his quality. Augur, a 15 to 1 chance, wen very cleverly. He tumped away in front and made the pace with Amber Jack, Dr. Swartz and Sweet Pepper close at his heels. In the last furlong Augur and Amber Jack drew away together. In a hard drive Augur outlasted Amber Jack was two lengths in front of Cedarstrome.

Surprised the Talent.

For Luck, Silver Dream and The Mus-

For Luck, Silver Dream and The Mus-keteer ran in close order to the stretch, where every one looked for The Mus-keteer to come-away and win easily. Silver Dream, however, surprised the talent by coming away and winning by two lengths from For Luck, who easily beat The Musketeer a length for the place.

Lord of the Valley's Race. Lord of the Valley's Race.

Lord of the Valley jumped to the front and made the running with Knobhampton, while Rob Roy, Naughty Lady and Kohinoor were a couple of lengths back. They held this order to the stretch, where Knobhampton soon quit. Rob Roy and Naughty Lady then closed on Lord of the Valley, but Shaw had a lit in reserve and he came away again, winning by half a fenth. Rob Roy was half a length in front of Tomcod, who sinished strong.

Despatch from Port Arthur States that the Fire from the Russians During Bombardment of Yesterday Hit Two, Possibly Three, of the Attacking Squadron.

20,000 RUSSIANS CATCH 12,000 JAPS IN A TRAP.

Landing Force of the Mikado's Men Is Ambushed on the Yalu and Routed Leaving Many Dead, Wounded and Suffering, a Great Loss in Guns, Ammunition and Supplies.

PORT ARTHUR, April 16.-In the bombardment of Port Arthur by the Japanese yesterday, lasting four hours, two Japanese ships were injured, one of them a cruiser, by fire from the ships in the harbor. It is reported that another of the enemy's vessels was struck, but this has not been officially confirmed. No damage was done to the forts or the town Several Chinese were killed and a few Chinese and Russians wounded

The Russian ships fired from the harbor indirectly, guided by signal from lookouts in the forts. After one of the shots from a Russian ship had incapacitated a Japanese cruiser the fleet of the enemy drew away

The first seen of the Japanese was at 6 o'clock yesterda; morning when a small fleet appeared on the horizon. and soon drew off, but at 16 o'clock a hostile fleet, numbering twenty-three vessels, was again sighted They formed in two divisions, one taking up a position behind Cape Liaoshan (the southern extremity of the peninsula on which Port Arthur is situated), shelling the shore and the Tiger Peninsula, while the other bombarded the Golden Hill and other batteries from a point opposite the road-

The fire was continued intermittently until 1 o'clock in the afternoon

JAPS AMBUSHED BY 20,000 RUSSIANS.

LONDON, April 16.-The first attempt of the Japanese to land a large force in Manchuria has resulted in a crushing defeat. From the preliminary land engagement it is apparent that the Russians are in strong force along the Yalu River in Manchuria and that they have occupied their time to good advantage in strengthening their positions while the Japanese have been marching up, unopposed, through Corea.

A body of Japanese troops, estimated to number 12,000, was convoyed in transports protected by warships from Admiral Togo's fleet to a point on the west bank of the Yalu, near its mouth. Scouts reported that the coast was clear, and the entire detachment was put ashore. Immediately the transports had been taken off shore the Japanese force was attacked by a force of Russians, said to be about 20,000 strong, that had been in concealment.

Before attacking the landing force the Russians allowed the Japanese to take ashore all their guns and a great quantity of ammuniiton. All of this was seized by the Russian forces.

The correspondent of the Standard says that the Russians charged with great energy, killing and wounding scores of the enemy and driving theim back to their transports i: confusion. So well had the Russian position been selected that the landing force of Japanese was not protected by the guns of the warships.
